Lunch & Learn

The League of Women Voters' November 15 Lunch & Learn will feature David Landis, Lincoln's Urban Development Department (UDD) Director. In his talk, entitled, "Bruises, Bumps and Backpats: The First Six Months at UDD", he will explore where we are, where we are going, what we know about city building. The luncheon will be held Thursday, November 15 at noon on the 20th floor of the US Bank Building, 13th and M Streets. The cost is $8.00 and includes lunch, tax and gratuity. Lunch & Learn events are open to the public. Reservations are required by noon Monday, November 12 and may be made by contacting the League Office by e-mail at lwv-ne@inebraska.com or by phone at 475-1411. Include your name, the number of reservations requested and contact information, phone number or e-mail address.

David Landis is a native Nebraskan, who holds Masters Degrees in public administration and in community and regional planning as well as a Juris Doctor, all from the University of Nebraska. For 28 years he served as a senator in the state legislature where he chaired the Urban Affairs, Banking and Revenue committees. In addition to his public service he has held faculty positions at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and other area postsecondary institutions.

The League of Women Voters Lunch & Learn events are held on the third Thursday of each month from September through May, at noon on the 20th floor of the US Bank Building, 13th and M Streets. All luncheons are open to the public with advance reservations. The December 20 Lunch & Learn speaker will be a Mary Jane Nielsen, discussing her book, A Street Named 'O'.

Celebrate the U.S. Constitution!

Please join the Lincoln-Lancaster League of Women Voters as we celebrate the U.S. Constitution with an informational evening program.

Professor John Hibbing, who teaches Political Science at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, will briefly discuss the U.S. Constitution and impeachment.

There will be time for questions and answers.

October Lunch & Learn speaker educates us about a new cancer study

Tracy Christensen, from the Southeast Nebraska Hematology and Oncology Consultants, was our guest speaker for our October Lunch & Learn. She told us about a new program in which patients can voluntarily allow a portion of their pathology test tissue samples to be used for cancer research. More information on the program can be found at: <http://www.senhoc.com/content.aspx?section=localcancernews&id=39905>

Lunch & Learn programs are generally the third Thursday of each month, September through May, in the Nebraska Club (20th floor of the US Bank Building at 13th and M Streets.) All are welcome to join us; please make reservations at 475-1411. Following are some pictures from the October luncheon.
